

Project	Organisation Name	Grant Awarded	Project Region	Project Details
Three-year grant towards the Phoenix Intervention Project, an employability project for young BAME women experiencing multiple disadvantage	PLIAS Resettlement	£42,700	London	75 women over three years will be supported to develop a better understanding of the support options available to them and made more aware of their rights and entitlements.
Three-year grant towards the Women's Outreach Project - supporting isolated and marginalised mothers with children under 5 in Edinburgh	Circle (Family Service Unit Scotland)	£40,623	Scotland	Increased number referrals to the service, increased self-esteem and confidence amongst mothers to take action to resolve issues faced and improved access to financial assistance
Three-year grant to continue 'the Voice of Migrant Women', a small grants scheme for migrant, refugee and asylum-seeking women in Northern Ireland, including capacity building and strategic support.	The VSB Foundation	£120,000	Northern Ireland	Improved skills and knowledge amongst migrant women, enabling greater participation in civic society, increased leadership, voice and visibility of migrant women; Home Office policy change achieved regarding paid childcare provision for women (with children) who are attending Home Office asylum interviews.
One-year grant towards staff costs to increase capacity within an intergenerational mediation service to support vulnerable daughters and their mothers, aiming to resolve relationship breakdown and prevent negative outcomes such as homelessness, teenage pregnancy.	Hastings & Rother Mediation	£10,000	South East	Improved understanding between mother and daughter; Strengthened family bonds, Improved self-esteem/confidence of mothers and daughters, enabling them to make better life choices
Contribution towards Surviving Domestic Abuse: supporting Muslim women in Rotherham to reintegrate with their communities and challenge family power dynamics	Tassibee Group	£5,000	Yorkshire and The Humber	28 women will receive peer mentoring and will benefit from increased confidence to actively engage in the community; 50 women will take part in monthly workshops to increase their confidence in challenging and changing decisions around domestic violence
Two-year grant towards the salary costs of three workers to support vulnerable young women to achieve independent living	Elpis Trust	£5,000	Scotland	Improved mental and emotional health, resilience and self-esteem for residents, increased uptake of educational and employment opportunities increased number of young women who successfully achieve independence after leaving Elpis.
Two-year core grant to support a change of approach to cover a broader range of child exploitation in addition to child sexual exploitation (CSE)	Safe and Sound Group	£20,000	East Midlands	A minimum of 60 girls receive one-to-one support each year and will be at reduced risk of exploitation and have improved mental and emotional wellbeing; A minimum of 15 girls will access the transition service and will have improved personal attainment and higher aspirations