

Project Name	Organisation Name	Grant	Region	Project Details
A three-year grant towards Blossom, an early intervention project with vulnerable young women aged 16-25 who are at risk of becoming involved in survival sex work	A Way Out	£45,000	North East	Blossom provides personalised support to young women aged 16 to 25 who have 'fallen through the net' with the aim of preventing abuse, harm and exploitation and promoting positive life choices at a time of major transition into early adulthood.
Supporting vulnerable girls from the Orthodox Jewish community during Covid-19 through the provision of alternative therapy groups	Noa Girls	£4,780	London	Grant towards providing emergency support to 20 vulnerable girls who come from difficult or harmful home situations and/or suffer from mental illness - all struggles which have been significantly amplified by Covid-19.
Three-year funding to continue the Re:Assure Women's Project, working with HIV positive women who are VAWG survivors and asylum seekers	Positive East	£45,000	London	Assure supports women living with HIV, who are refugees or asylum seekers and have experienced violence, trauma, rape or other forms of abuse.
A one-year grant towards core costs to support women and girls in Rochdale	Rochdale Women's Welfare Association	£15,000	North West	Core costs to continue vital frontline services and develop RWWA's programmes to increase the number of women and girls it is able to support.
A three-year grant towards prevention/early intervention work with girls who have survived or are vulnerable to child sexual abuse and rape.	Safeline	£45,000	West Midlands	Safeline's early intervention programme helps prevent sexual abuse and rape and support survivors to overcome their experiences.
A three-year grant towards Safe Haven - specialist support and safety for destitute women and children without recourse to public funds	Safer Places	£43,089	East of England	Funding towards the salary costs of a specialist IDVA to support women with NRPF who are housed in its interim unit, having fled an abusive relationship.